Pouring With Heart

Pouring With Heart is a company driven to change the perception of what working in bars means, and solidify once and for all that this is a damn fine career that is honorable and noble. We are fanatical about building careers in this business and that is our sole mission.

We believe that to Pour with Heart is to put your heart and soul into being of service to the person right in front of you. We believe deeply in our people and know that the only way to create truly remarkable bars will be if our family shows up as themselves and pours themselves into their work and those around them.

   Hai Hospitality tells us how their benefits and perk package encourages a growing career within the food and drink industry — setting the trend of professionalizing a career in our industry.

Hai Hospitality is an award-winning restaurant group that’s made a positive difference to employment within the restaurant industry since 2003 when Chef Tyson Cole opened the first Uchi in Austin, Texas. Since then, Hai Hospitality has grown to include four restaurant concepts: Uchi, Uchiko, Uchiba, and Loro Asian Smokehouse and Bar, with additional locations in Houston, Dallas, Denver, and Miami. While the restaurant group has become a powerhouse in our industry — they’ve stayed true to their beliefs that their employees make Hai Hospitality the success it is today. Hai Hospitality has fostered an environment where each employee can grow professionally and personally, offering benefits and perks that make it possible to have a successful and satisfying career in the restaurant industry.

“Hai Hospitality puts growth first and foremost,” Kristen Hubby, Social and Digital Strategist at Hai Hospitality, told us. “Opportunity for growth is provided across all team members, from those in administrative/office roles to those working in our restaurants — there is a path for success.” Hai Hospitality’s emphasis on career development is likely one of the best perks about working at one of their restaurants. They’ve invested in creating an atmosphere where employees who seek knowledge and growth can find it, and there is something for everyone.

From their beverage program that provides discounts and guidance to those who want to achieve Sommelier, Sake, and Cicerone Certifications to their organized family meal, there is an opportunity for career advancement available to both FOH and BOH employees. Hai Hospitality is known to encourage culinary creativity and freedom through their daily family meal. Hubby described that those in the BOH interested in participating could sign up on a roster where two or three team members are scheduled to collaborate to produce a meal for everyone every day.

“There is a lot of creative freedom on what is offered each day, and it’s really fun for the staff to bond and a great way to create that family and team member vibe,” Hubby explained. A family meal can be an excellent

AUTHENTIC. ELEVATED. ASIAN CUISINE.

We create handcrafted, artisanal magic.

Good food deserves to be shared. Each of our restaurants at HL Concepts brings the best that Asian cuisine has to offer, and makes it accessible for all to enjoy. Our cutting-edge culinary concepts are developed by serial restaurateur & master chef Hyunwook Lee, who brings his experience, culture and community into each and every dish.

HL Concepts was established in 2013 with a focus on uncompromising quality in a comfortable, yet sophisticated setting. Each of our dining experiences are unique, authentic, and remarkable in every sense of the word.
